

INVESTMENT BANKING ANALYST – CALGARY, ALBERTA EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

RBC Capital Markets' Global Investment Banking division in Calgary is seeking an energetic, bright and talented individual for our Analyst program. This well-established program has produced many of the industry experts that are the backbone of RBC Capital Markets and is one of our key differentiators in a very competitive and dynamic marketplace.

RBC Capital Markets is one of North America's leading corporate and investment banks, offering a broad range of products and services to corporations, governments and institutional clients. With nearly 3,000 employees, we work with clients in North America and internationally through 58 offices in 11 countries.

RBC Capital Markets is a part of the Royal Bank of Canada, one of the largest providers of financial services in the world. RBC ranks among the top ten banks in North America by market capitalization and has one of the highest credit ratings of any financial institution in the world.

Our Global Investment Banking division provides sales and trading services, underwriting of equity and debt capital, leading research, and strategic advisory services for leading corporations, institutions and governments throughout North America and around the world. Our investment banking solutions are centered on the clients we serve in the industry sectors they operate.

Each year, RBC Capital Markets' well-established Analyst Program hires undergraduates to work in the Global Investment Banking Group in our offices throughout Canada, with this opportunity specifically in our Calgary office. Candidates for this program are hired for an initial two-year period. Analysts become part of RBC Capital Markets' teams that execute transactions across a variety of industries. Analysts are assigned a variety of analytical tasks associated with debt and equity financings, mergers and acquisitions and other financial advisory assignments. Successful Analysts use this opportunity to hone their skills, gain exposure to interesting, leading-edge transactions and learn from some of the best and brightest people in the industry.

In selecting an Analyst candidate, we look for well-rounded individuals with outstanding academic records, proven analytical skills and a variety of extracurricular activities. Successful Analyst candidates will possess an undergraduate degree, and have usually focused their studies on business or economics, although this is not a prerequisite. Other essential qualities we look for include strong oral and written communication skills, proven leadership capabilities, initiative, and the ability to play a key role as team member in a fast-paced and challenging work environment. In addition, Analyst candidates may be enrolled in or completed the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) program, although this is not a prerequisite.

Please submit a cover letter, résumé and academic transcripts to the recruiting contact indicated below. The deadline for submission is August 24, 2007. Please note that, due to the large volume of applications received, we will be contacting only those individuals who we wish to interview. Thank you for your interest in RBC Capital Markets.
